for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies.

*Christ, our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon and stars of light,

*Christ, our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

4. For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,

*Christ, our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

5. For each perfect gift divine to our race so freely given, graces all of your design,
flowers of earth and buds of heaven,

*Christ, our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

6. For the church that evermore, lifting holy hands above,
offers up on every shore
the pure sacrifice of love,

✠ In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ Jesus said ‘This is the great and first commandment. And the second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.’

We are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.

Let us then run our race, laying aside every weight and bringing our sins to the Lord in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

♪ Kyrie eleison.	Lord, have mercy.	Lord, have mercy.
Christe eleison.	Christ, have mercy.	Christ, have mercy.
Kyrie eleison.	Lord, have mercy.	Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith: ✠ pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA

♪ Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, here it is customary to make a slight bow
we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, here it is customary to make a slight bow
only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
Here it is customary to bow for the duration of the words 'receive our prayer' receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, here it is customary to make a slight bow
with the Holy Spirit,
in the ✠ glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT

Most High, Omnipotent, Good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may, for love of you, delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please sit. Before the Liturgy of the Word all children and their parents are invited to come forward to receive a prayer and blessing

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Micah

[6.6-8]

‘With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt-offerings,
with calves a year old?
Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
with tens of thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?’
He has told you, O mortal, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Sung by the Choir at 9:30am

[8:4-10]

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars which you have set in order,

What are we, that you should be mindful of us:

what are we, that you should care for us?

Yet you have made us little less than gods:
and have crowned us with glory and honour.

You have given us dominion over your handiwork:

and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,

All sheep and oxen:

and all the creatures of the field,

The birds of the air and the fish of the sea:

and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.

O Lord our Governor:

how glorious is your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Galatians.

[6.14-18]

May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand and turn to face the Book of the Gospels.

GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia.

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Alleluia.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke. [12:22-34]

Here it is customary to trace three small crosses on the forehead, lips and heart

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He said to his disciples, ‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

‘Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

For the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON

The Sermon is followed by a time of reflection.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Let us together stand to affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord,

Jesus Christ, here it is customary to make a slight bow
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

Here it is customary to make a low bow from the waist until '...became truly human'
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped here it is customary to make a slight bow and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the ☩ resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray for the world and for the Church.

Please kneel

Holy God, through the kind intercession of Saint Francis we seek holiness above all things. We seek the faith, hope and love that allowed him to joyfully renounce the pleasures of earthly life and to radically follow our Lord Jesus Christ. Bless your people with the privilege of suffering with and for the poor in the example of Jesus.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

As Saint Francis left a comfortable life to lead a life of poverty and service to our Lord Jesus Christ, we ask that you would turn the hearts of all those who seek gains for themselves that they would realize the folly of worldly pleasures.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

As Saint Francis gave of himself to draw nearer to you, O Lord, so in a time of silence we call to mind something which we this day humbly forego as an offering to God our Father, silence trusting this act signals a start of our conversion. May Saint Francis help us in praying for the grace to truly repent of our sins and actively seek reconciliation with you, our God.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

May we be always grateful for all blessings we have received and grant us the strength to overcome our most pressing concerns, as we pray also for those who have asked for our prayers: Andrew, Warwick, Harriet, Diane, Geoffrey, Bev, Thomas, Robert, John, and Greg.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

May the blessings we obtain through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Francis, and all the saints, deepen our faith, and inspire us to store treasures in Heaven, that we may spend eternity with the Almighty Father, together with all those whom we remember in prayer who have died: Elizabeth Morgan, Constance Edith Breithaupt, Eva May Rice, Mavoureen

Betha Nanson, Frederick William Parry-Marshall, Edwin Persival Charles Remeus, William Gordon Volum.

Rest ☩ eternal grant to them, O Lord:
and let light perpetual shine upon them.

The prayers of intercession may conclude with a final prayer, after which all stand

GREETING OF PEACE

We are fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God, through Christ our Lord, who came and preached peace to those who were far off and those who were near.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

We greet each other with a sign of Christ's peace.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND CONSECRATION

♪ The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest continues in thanksgiving...

Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying:

♪ Holy, holy, holy Lord, here it is customary to make a low bow from the waist
God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

♪ Blessed ☩ is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The priest continues with the prayer of consecration... It is customary when the bells ring at the elevation of the Sacrament to make the ☩ Sign of the Cross

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

♪ Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Eucharistic Prayer continues...

... we worship you, Father,
in songs of never-ending praise:

♪ Blessing and honour and glory and power
are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

♪ Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory; for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND COMMUNION

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body:

For we all share in the one bread.

The priest breaks the bread while the Agnus Dei is sung

♪ O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

All baptised Christians who seek Christ in this sacrament are invited to receive Holy Communion. Anyone is welcome to receive a blessing instead. During Communion the Parish Choir sing the Motet, "Jesu Meine Freude" by Johann Sebastian Bach.

Notices may be given here, after which please stand.

The priest prays this post-communion prayer

Merciful God, who gave such grace to your servant Francis that he served you with singleness of heart and loved you above all things: help us, whose communion with you has been renewed in this sacrament, to forsake all that holds us back from following Christ and to grow into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord. Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

The priest pronounces the blessing

God, who has prepared for you a city with eternal foundations, bring you, with all the saints, to the eternal and triumphant joy of that city; here it is customary to bow, or genuflect on the left knee and the blessing of God almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

At the 8am Eucharist, the service concludes here

CLOSING HYMN

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
where there is injury, your pardon, Lord;
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.
*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*
2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope;
where there is darkness, let me bring your light;
and where there's sadness, ever joy.
*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
 It is in pardoning that we pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive,
 and in dying that we're born to eternal life.
